From Conscription.

If They Don't Volunteer They Will Be Compelled to Fight.

London, Nov. 20.—If eligible single men do not volunteer they will be brought in by compulsion. Lord Derby states this in a letter to Pre-mier Asquith, in reply to which the premier today says, "the statement premier today says, "the statement correctly expresses the intentions of the government."

This pledge removes all the uncer-tainty of the last few days and abso-lutely commits the government to conscription unless all eligible unmarried men (of military age), exclusive of munition workers and others en-gaged in work necessary for the coun-try, have enlisted by December 11.

There should be a big jump in re-cruiting, which has fallen off consid-erably since Mr. Asquith's statement on Tuesday, which raised doubts among married men as to their posi-tion. Lord Derby is receiving praise for his handling of one of the most afficult jobs in England. He is gain ing the confidence of the nation and er tasks when he has completed the present work.
